Antonio Gramsci - Oxford Reference

The interest of the Italian Marxist philosopher Antonio Gramsci (1891–1937) in sport was, apparently, ' close to nil ' (Guttman, 1994, p. 6). Yet his ideas have been highly influential in the social analysis of sport. This chapter briefly introduces the man and his work, and explains the appeal of a Gramscian framework to social science scholarship in general and to sport in particular.
